The count's lawyer alleged that it was an honor for any one to come in contact with one of the Szeczeni family, and the public prosecutor promptly rebuked him, declaring that nowadays nobody was noble by birth, but only by work and knowledge. The count was sentenced to one month's imprisonment, and Herr Wahrmann was let

CHATHAM, Aug. 23.—A young boy about 11 years old, son of John Robson, employed in the Harvester works, got one taken off and the other badly mangled when he was caught between the cars in the Grand Trunk yard last

The wildest confusion ensued. The bow of the Oceanic crushed into the middle section of the Chester cutting her almost in half. When the vessels were locked so that the Chester's passengers were trapped over the Oceanic's bow. As soon as the large steamer could clear herself she swung around and began to lower boats. The officers and crew of the Chester seemed to lose their senses and the passengers stated afterward that some of the crew climbed aboard

GUELPH, Aug. 22.—The feeling is intense in this city over the Boot Act prosecutions which have been carried out for some time by the two detectives imported from London. Eleven hotel-keepers in this city have been charged with having sold liquor to bootleggers, and these plea guilty and were each fined $50 and costs. John McAtter, John Hagart, Chas. Schmuck and William Sheehan at Johnston's Hotel, and J. J. McLaughlin at the J. R. Hower, bartenders, were dismissed by consent. As a result of the inspector's recent raid on the city, the Boot Act has been made notorious in the city and wine in the reding is scarce.

But it may be mentioned that liquor is being dispensed to drink in all the hotels just as openly as it is in Toronto or Hamilton.

BELLEVILLE, FRIDAY, AUG. 24.
SOME LOCAL MATTERS.

The next project of importance with which our City Council will have to deal is that of providing a system of sewerage for the city. This is a project of the greatest importance, and one which will require the attention of the Council for some time to come. The project is to build a sewerage system which will dispose of the sewage of the city in a proper and sanitary manner. The project is to build a sewerage system which will dispose of the sewage of the city in a proper and sanitary manner.

Some years since the policy of making permanent improvements in the city was laid down and carried out to the extent of paving one block, namely, between Hotel and Campbell streets. This policy, which is beyond question a wise one, has been pursued ever since. At some period, however, although heavy expenditure in other directions has not doubt caused a temporary abandonment of the policy of paving Front street, we trust that the idea will not be given up, and that at least one block may be paved every year until the work has been completed.

The Public Works Committee have been very slow in dealing with the lower bridge, the wooden pier guarding which was badly damaged by the ice as it was leaving the river. These pier guards are not only a nuisance to the watermen, but they are also a danger to the public. The committee should have taken prompt action to have them removed or repaired.

Another matter in connection with the bridge is the raising of the bridge. The bridge is now in a state of disrepair, and it is necessary to raise it to its original position. The committee should have taken prompt action to have the bridge raised.

The time has come when a material other than wooden boards must be procured for sidewalks, at least on the principal streets. The Council, profiting by the experience of other places, ought to have taken prompt action to have the sidewalks made of a more durable material.

A CHURCH COUNTRY.
At the Knights of Labor Picnic the Member for East Hastings was speaking to say, and during the course of his remarks he claimed that what we wanted was "to make this cheap country to live in." Such twaddle is perfectly understood by the working class, who are not so stupid as Mr. Burdett would make them out to be. What the working class want is, plenty of work at good wages. Evidently the member for East Hastings was endeavoring to flatter the palate of the working class in this way, but he will tell a different story when addressing his constituents in the country. This reminds us of the story of a man who was telling a dark room between a Frenchman and an Englishman, when the Frenchman found out the chimney and brought down the Englishman. The story teller remarked, "When the Frenchman was brought down, I put the Englishman up the chimney." For a member of the Knights of Labor, down comes the price of grain and the price of labor, and up goes the price of grain.

RETALIATION WITH A BIG R.
PRESIDENT CLEVELAND SENDS A MESSAGE TO CONGRESS.
The President's message to Congress, dated August 22, is a long and important one. It deals with the relations between the United States and Canada, and it is a message of retaliation. The President says that the Canadian government has been guilty of a series of wrongs against the United States, and that the United States must retaliate. The President's message is a warning to the Canadian government that the United States will not tolerate any further wrongs.

NATIONAL BRITANNY.
The returns from Illinois show that the general election of 1887 was a victory for the Union. The Union received a majority in the electoral college, and a majority in the popular vote. This is a significant victory for the Union, and it shows that the people of Illinois are in favor of the Union.

THE ONE HUNDRED.
Dr. Holmes, in his book, "The One Hundred," discusses the importance of the number one hundred. He says that the number one hundred is a symbol of power and authority, and that it is a number which is often used by the powerful to oppress the weak. He says that the number one hundred is a number which is often used by the powerful to oppress the weak.

NEW CONDEMNED.
At Ottawa, Ontario, a man was sentenced to the gallows for the murder of a woman. The man was found guilty of the murder, and he was sentenced to hang. The execution was carried out on August 22.

CANADIAN IMMIGRATION.
A letter from the Canadian Immigration Commission, dated August 22, is a long and important one. Strange, but Still True

Mrs. David Cairless, Haldimand Township, was with a very pleasant surprise a few weeks ago. Her little son, who is now four years old, had been afflicted with dyspepsia and indigestion, the symptoms of which were, pain in the stomach and bowels, and a general feeling of uneasiness. As a physician, and an unlimited amateur medicine dispenser, she had tried many strange remedies, but without any success; and, at last, she had been told of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. She had tried Dr. Williams' Compound, and one bottle had removed both pain and ache. She returns the kindest regards to Dr. Williams, and says that she will continue to use his magnificent remedy. A Moholowah Souvenir.

In 1878, a gold watch, made by Dent & Co., of London, bearing the monogram "N. S. 1878," was presented to the Kappas Exegetes by their firm for the Kappas Exegetes, for presentation to the Prince Imperial. The other day the back of the material was found, showing the establishment of the firm, which was founded by Messrs. Weil & Harburg, who informed them that six years ago it had been bought by a client of theirs at Kimberley from a German firm, who had obtained the watch from the poor, slain Prince Imperial, who was killed at Zolundung where he met his death, had found its way to its original maker, from whom, probably, it will pass to the hands of the Prince Imperial.

The Queen paid a special visit to the Canadian court at the Glasgow Exhibition on Thursday.

and Maine that their contemptible little expedition over a few codfish on the banks of Newfoundland had cost them more than the national Congress, and thus if they kept smugging the country about it they would in effect be paying the United States for all the markets of the United States to stop relieving them of the burden.

Mr. Blaine then referred at length to the matter of the Johnson-Tarleton treaty, which was rejected by the Senate, and the subsequent adjustment of the boundary would repeat it. He said: "The Government has been fortunate in their diplomatic management of this case, and I wish it had not been for the blundering of that party in State and stripes would do itself over on the Pacific coast from the Gulf of California to Behring Straits."

He concluded as follows:

"I am glad to see this party following residents of the party in its negotiations with Great Britain, an alteration of duties so much to the disadvantage of our country inconsistent with the dignity of a nation conscious of its great power. We certainly do not intend to follow the example of those who are studying a subject for three years, and then radically change the same between Wednesday afternoon and Thursday morning. On Wed-
